CES is an equal opportunities employer and we follow a policy of safer recruitment. At interview stage, proof of identity, the right to work in the UK, and originals of qualifications must be provided and all gaps in CV must be explained satisfactorily. Before appointment, references will be followed up. Reference requests will ask specifically whether there is any reason why an applicant should not be employed in situations where he/she may have responsibility for, or access to, persons under 18. Appropriate Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) disclosure may be required prior to confirmation of appointment.
